BOFIELD/INTEL
Gadull Resettlement

REF: DIR-06491, 1 June 1953; [] -3740, 26 May 1953

1. [] informed BOFIELD that Gadull departed for France by ship on 12 June 1953. Gadull's departure was made possible by placing him in the refugee program known as the "French Farmer Scheme."

2. In his 21 April 1953 letter to Decadal, Gadull wrote that he had registered for emigration with a commission which had come to Syros, but he would not leave Syros unless so instructed by Decadal. It is most improbable that Decadal was able to send any instructions to Gadull in Syros and the latter's statement that he would not leave Syros without instructions appears as an attempt to "soft-soap" his way into the good graces of Decadal.

3. For the record, it is pointed out that Gadull is a well-trained W/T operator and that his potential as an agent is good. His refusal to continue on clandestine missions appears to stem from a fear that he will be killed and he also feels that the payment for his services is not commensurate with the risk involved.
